

This is one of a set of 27 courses developed for the BC Provincial Health Services Authority. The courses are used for review training in an Employee Wellness program. All 27 courses were assembled into curricula and deployed via a Learning Management System.

Click on the image to launch the course in a new window.